MATERIAL NUEVO DE PRÓXIMA APARICIÓN:

1) VIDEO en YouTube de la canción "Blue Cat" (Fernando Garcin / Daniel Fernández/ Tony White). YA ESTÁ DISPONIBLE EN YOUTUBE. "BLUE CAT". I had a verse written about a syrian refugee carrying her cat for 2.000 kms, trying to survive to war far from her country, and then I watched a photography and I had to write more lines and verses in order to express all what I felt.

After the piano and the voice, the amazing musician from NYC Tony White –who has worked with artists like David Amram or Michael Stipe, and former saxophonist of 10.000 Maniacs, and who played twice in "Kicks Joy Darkness" the CD album tribute to Jack Kerouac with Daniel Chauvin and with Hitchhikers- wrote me: "I want to play in your song, Fernando!". Tony understood perfectly the sax and flutes I wanted. PHOTO: Idomeni, Grecia: Refugiada siria recorre miles kilómetros con su gato. Fotografía de Louisa Gouliamaki ©. Idomeni. Greece. All the rights and the money from the people downloading this songs has been donated to Lesbos Solidarity, el campamento de refugiados en Lesbos, que ya han recibido el dinero y me lo han confirmado. Hay que tener en cuenta que SOLAMENTE una persona española (no valenciana, solo española) ha comprado o descargado mi disco de 2019, TODAS las descargas y compras -excepto una- han sido pues de personas de diferentes países: Suecia, Francia, Reino Unido, Alemania, Estados Unidos, etc, razón por la cual he optado por escribir y explicar más en inglés que en castellano.

Soy amigo de Tony White desde la década de los 2000, un trato hermoso de igual a igual, aunque él, además de haber trabajado con David Amram, Daniel Chauvin, grabado y girado con 10.000 Maniacs, Michael Stipe, Paul McCartney o Aretha, es un músico asombroso y gran persona. Su madre ha fallecido recientemente, un poco después que la mía, por lo que ahora no quiero molestarle, en otro momento puede aportar alguna música desde la distancia.

2) VIDEO of the song "SONRISA" from the album "Days Of The Fall", with Fernando voice and guitar demo, and the amazing musician from Florida Derek Damico playing all instruments and producing. This VIDEO was finished before my mom passed, but it will be uploaded and published in YouTube at the end of 2022.

Próximamente en mi canal de YouTube:

4) Between Autumn 2019 and Autumn 2021 I have recorded 2 albums of songs with the musician from Wales HILRANT (Paul Tilley). Bendito sea Paul, que no ha dejado en estos años, hasta ayer mismo, de escribirme por email y por carta postal, y hasta de llamar, lo mismo que Russell. Me han salvado la vida. The first album with Paul of 9 songs was published in Bandcamp in late 2020, so is available. The second album, I asked Paul to wait for a year because I recorded the last voice one month after my mom passed away. It's ready to be published this Autumn in Bandcamp. In this second collaboration there is a song that has some beat references, also references to Lou Reed, Dylan Thomas, etc.

5) In 2020 and 2021 I have recorded 2 songs in collaboration with the great jazz musician from Essex, UK, Andrew Austin (we already made 3 songs in previous years). These 2 new songs are "Hey Jack" (based in a poem by Fernando and a haiku by Kerouac) and "December Song" (a song that starts with a words by Sherlock Holmes). "Hey Jack" is already published by Andrew, and available in YOUTUBE. Next december I will published "December Song". Bendito sea Andrew. HEY JACK VIDEO. Music: Andrew Austin. Lyrics, Vocals: F. Garcin.

6) I got several reviews pendant to share about my last album "Days Of The Fall", including David Lidow review and Lasse Erikson review, and some more images. David Lidov, who visited Valencia in 2018, friend of the great american composer Ben Boretz and of Russell, is a Senior Scholar and Professor Emeritus of Department of Music, York University, Toronto, CANADA (también tenemos un poema escrito a medias pendiente de publicar). Lasse Erikson era un musicólogo y promotor y manager sueco de música que vino a la presentación de mi disco (a la presentación de mi disco vinieron músicos, managers, bailarinas, un actor, casi toda la formación del grupo Armas Blancas –Jesús Fita, Francis y Salva-, Lasse Erikson con su hijo y músico Leo- y ningún poeta. En mis 8 conciertos de mi gira de 2014 y 2015 pasó lo mismo. El único “poeta” –y sobre todo gran amigo y guionista- que vino fue Xabi Bosch. Lasse Erikson tenía el plan de crear una red de garitos de actuación de la costa de Alicante a Almería, y que Happy Freuds fuera mi banda soporte, además de tocar sus propios temas. Nadie en Valencia le hizo caso. Lasse Erikson falleció de muerte súbita durante en la pandemia en 2020. Leo, el hijo de Lasse Erikson, tiene una banda con su hermano (Leo tiene ahora 22 años y su hermano Viktor 18), llamada “Happy Freuds”, y a los dos días de verme en directo grabaron una versión de mi canción “Why” –un grupo sueco haciendo una versión de una canción mía, lo mismo que en Spain- e hicieron video y está publicado en You Tube.

WHY. Version by Happy Freuds. Words and music: F. Garcin.

7) El escritor y cantautor de West Tampa Florida Mike Baluja recorded a song dedicated to Fernando Garcin: “The Great Garcin” that is in his Youtube channel. Recently Mike Baluja asked me permission to record an english versión of my spanish song “Mañana Tú No Estabas” (del disco “Tiempo y Detalles, 2006, Comboi Records). I sent him an english translation of the song and he adapted the song to be sung in english. He has made a great version, but he finished the song just when my mom passed away. It’s available in his YouTube channel as well, though I told Mike I would share the song in the following months, that I needed at least one year after my mom passing.

8) Con mi problema degenerativo vertebral es difícil ponerme en pie y actuar o incluso tocar la guitarra algunos días, pero desde 2018 he estado grabando cuando me daba por ahí tomas únicas de temas que me apetecían, algunos míos, otros improvisados, otros dedicados a alguien, y otros versiones de Fran Sinatra, Tom Waits, Bob Dylan, Max Steiner, Jimmy Fontana, Antonio Vega, Van Morrison, etc. Algunos están colgados en Instagram y YouTube, otros están pendientes, pues he guardado un tiempo de silencio desde el fallecimiento de mi madre. Algún día lo recopilaré.

POST SCRIPTUM:

1) VERY IMPORTANT! Of course I been making the internet page tribute to my Mom, "Sol Romeu, el movimiento vecinal en Valencia", with all her writings, her stories and all what he lived and did from 1977 until 2019. I need to find a way to order the posts, to make them like chapters. I have stopped and take a short break. I have a lot of pin in my back, and I cannot work like I used to do before. But all images I took photos and scanned and are fixed and chapters done.

2) I been working in The Bootleg Garcin 00-20. All the unpublished songs, plus alternate takes, plus collaborations with other artists, plus my new songs. All the tracks have notes. Every note about every tune is written in english. Why to write in Spanish if almost every track has not been understood by any spanish musician. I think I dont want to keep on doing this if Aint got fun. And when I got a song and I go to the spaniards (not now, some songs are from 2000s and have been sent to different musicians along the years) and they only try to do what they are used to do, their "thing", and not "the thing in my head", the domesticate the demo and I dont want that feeling anymore. Now I record myself with the phone for fun.

3) I ALSO have made a folder with zip files of my unpublished literary works. Apart from 2 old ones from the 90s, I have a book of stories I began in 2014 until 2019, but later I been deleting some parts or changing others. And 2 collection of poems "POEMAS ENCOGIDOS, 2009-2029, I & II". ... I really dont see is worth to publish now. But maybe I will consider to make my own self published limited of the prose one. Its not expensive here and you dont have to explain nothing to an editor (in Spain is really a mob, editors are writers, writerr are 96% teachers of literatura, and so the juries of the awards, and it's all very stupid.

4) I'm making 2 Blogs telling my artistic biography, one for the poetry careeer and one for the songwriting. Almost finished now. PDF for downloading of all.
